

OMAH Liang

A eudemonic dining outlet to inspire those-fun loving travelers

In line with the continued growth of the business, Tlaga Singha Management is committed to continuing to attract more travelers to the area. Visitors that are visiting Tlaga Singha will surely get more familiar with the destination as to what other attractions it offers. All this will potentially push them to visit the other tourist objects in the surrounding area that woo the interests of travelers while visiting Tlaga Singha Tropical River Pool Club.

For this reason, we endeavor to make Tlaga Singha Tropical River Pool Club become the brand icon of Singapadu Village, Gianyar-Bali and offer our visitors a lasting memory in the life of experiencing a day pool club excitement. We recently have developed a new eudemonic hub, OMAH Liang, a cozy dining outlet for those-fun loving travelers to spend a joyful day together. The increasing prominence of a day pool club in Bali is now a boon to those fun-loving travelers. And the potential increased number of visitors is a boon to our business.

We highly express our thankfulness to our team and all the associates who have contributed to the success of this additional facility possible to offer a new dining experience at Tlaga Singha. To make all the efforts a completion, we would like to take this opportunity to announce the opening of OMAH Liang officially on 15 May 2022 following a religious ceremony performed to cleanse and purify the outlet divinely that makes it ready to welcome its immediate visitors.

What is OMAH Liang?

OMAH Liang is the name given to a newly reshaped dining area to make all the difference. It lies adjacent to Bale Petung, the main dining restaurant. It is an idyllic dining outlet to get a slower pace of life for an intimate hangout with friends while dining together. Its presence complements the other existing dining outlets to give visitors a new dimension of a delightful culinary experience in a tropical river pool club like no others.

What food do we serve?

We serve tapas specially cooked food fusion by presenting Indonesian food with its intense flavors in stylish western presentation with more colors, flavors, and varieties. This food fusion accelerates the mixture of the tastes and the Instagram-able presentation of the two food cultures that trigger the excitement of visitors to create a story post on social media. All this escalates the blissful feeling of overall dining experience on the Island of Bali. It is supposed to be something new in the culinary industry and worth trying.

How does OMAH Liang look like?

OMAH Liang is a beautifully designed dining area with a modern and chic interior of a loose furniture set, and a sofa lounge to offer a comforting space to meet and talk with friends for a social affair, nicely located at the best corner to spot the scenic riverside views with a minimum of passersby's distraction. It has private access to the main swimming pool to swim and splash in under the warmth of the tropical daylight.

What is the philosophy of OMAH Liang?

OMAH stands for Open Mind And Heart, make you 'Liang,' Balinese term, meaning happy.' A spot to conceive meeting friends for a hangout is a socially healing session. We are all aware that the digital age separates people physically by distancing them. Consequently, people get more connected digitally than humanly. Thus, we fully admit that direct human interaction promotes social inclusivity and makes them humanly feel. OMAH Liang is an engaging spot to reconnect and glue you all socially and emotionally.

Press Release

Who should visit OMAH Liang?

We intentionally dedicate the spot to fun-loving travelers, food critics, digital nomads, and architecture connoisseurs. They won't intuitively only spend time for pleasure there but also how to treasure their social engagement. They chit-chat to share stories with others. They eat and laugh together. Human instinct, they will spend quality time together when they flock together in an intimate environment. Even remote employees can use it as a virtual office.

OMAH Liang is a place that facilitates social interaction and is committed to making the spot a better place for everyone to improve their social beings. So, let's live it up and get humanly connected at OMAH Liang to celebrate the spirit of friendship in a new dining experience. A hub of inspiration and creativity to meet friends, speak up, share stories, and burst into laughter together for encouragement.

Following the successful opening of OMAH Liang, we readily welcome our visitors for a perfect hideaway to enjoy Tlaga Singha's new facility from a day of depression. We highly appreciate the attention of all stakeholders at this stage. They always give us their continuous support for the success we thrive in the future.

We, the entire Tlaga Singha team, very much look forward to serving you at OMAH Liang.

Your sincerely,

Tlaga Singha Management.
